

Rules for Doppelkopf

Trumps

1. Ten of ♥ hearts
2. Queen of ♣ clubs (Elderly)
3. " ♠ spades
4. " ♥ hearts
5. " ♦ diamonds
6. Jack of ♣ clubs (Karlchen)
7. " ♠ spades
8. " ♥ hearts
9. " ♦ diamonds
10. Ace of ♦ diamonds (Fox)
11. Ten of "
12. King of "
13. Nine of "

Card Value

Ace	11	Ten	10
King	4	Queen	3
Jack	2	Nine	0

Game Points

- 1 Point for each no 120, 90, 60, 30, 0
- + 1 Point for each announced no 120, 90, ...
- +/- 1 Point for each Extra
- + Re/Contra (double the points)

Extras

- Karlchen: Last pot with 'Jack of Clubs'
- Doppelkopf: Pot with more than 40 points
- Solo: Queens, Jacks, Suit, Marriage
- Fox: Ace of diamonds caught by opponent
- Elderly: won against them

Solo

1. Queen Solo: Only the eight Queens are trump. All four suits rank Ace, Ten, King, Jack, Nine.
2. Jack Solo: Only the eight Jacks are trump. All four suits rank Ace, Ten, King, Queen, Nine.
3. Trump Solo: Each of the 4 suits can be announced as trump solo. If the suit is diamonds, the usual order of trumps is unchanged. If it is any other suit, the 4 diamonds and are replaced by the announced suit, the 10 of hearts remains highest ranking trump.
4. Marriage (Hochzeit): The player holds both "Queen of clubs". The partner is determined by the player, who wins the first trick, where the first card played is not a trump. If, after 3 tricks, no one other than the player announcing Marriage has won a trick, this player has to play on its own (and to gather 121 points).
5. Silent Marriage: The player can also decide to play a "Silent marriage", in which he does not announce anything. He has to win on its own against the three other player. The three other players will initially not know that they are playing together.

Rules

1. Exceptions: Before the first card is played, each player can announce one of the following exceptions. The solo player always starts the first trick (except in the case of "Silent Marriage):
The exceptions are declared clockwise, starting with the player to the dealer's left. Players with no exceptions to announce are "gesund (healthy)".
2. Contra / Re: Re is announced by a player who holds a "Queen of Clubs", contra by players who do not. Re and Contra both double the game points. They have to be made by a player who still holds 11 or more cards. When Re or Contra have been announced, further subsequent announcements are possible:
 - "No 90" - with 10 cards or more
 - "No 60" - 9 with cards or more
 - "No 30" - 8 with cards or more
 - "No 0 (Schwarz)" - with 7 cards or moreIn the case of Marriage, the trick which determines the partner counts as the starting point for Re/Contra and no 90, 60,